Global COVID-19 Overview

date
01-01-2021 14-08-2024

continent
All

location
All

770.3M
Total Cases

Indicates the massive global spread of COVID-19 across countries.

7.0M
Total Deaths

Shows the significant global mortality impact of the pandemic.

7.4bn
Total Population

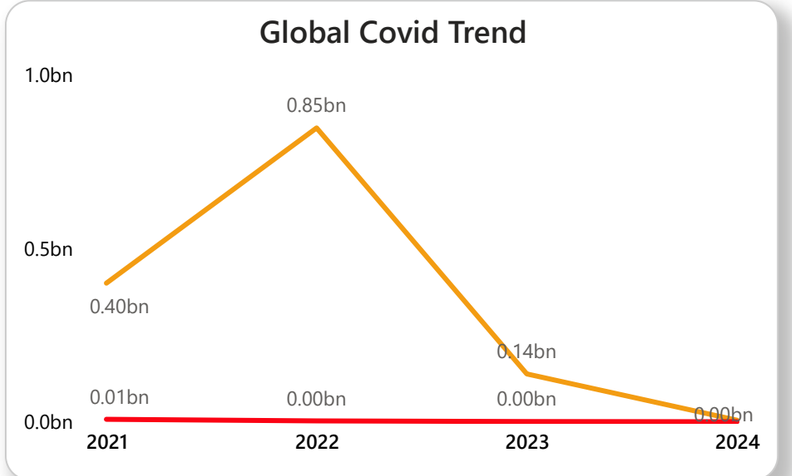
Used to compare infection scale relative to population size.

84M
Total Vaccinations

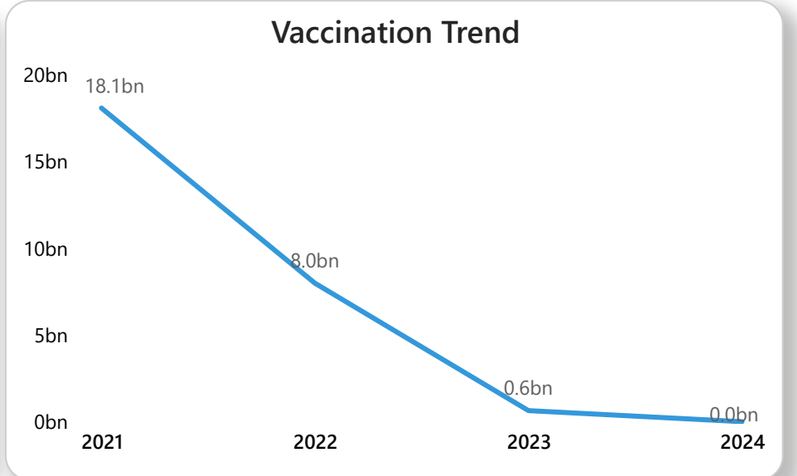
Reflects the large-scale global vaccination effort during the pandemic.

0.9%
Death Rate

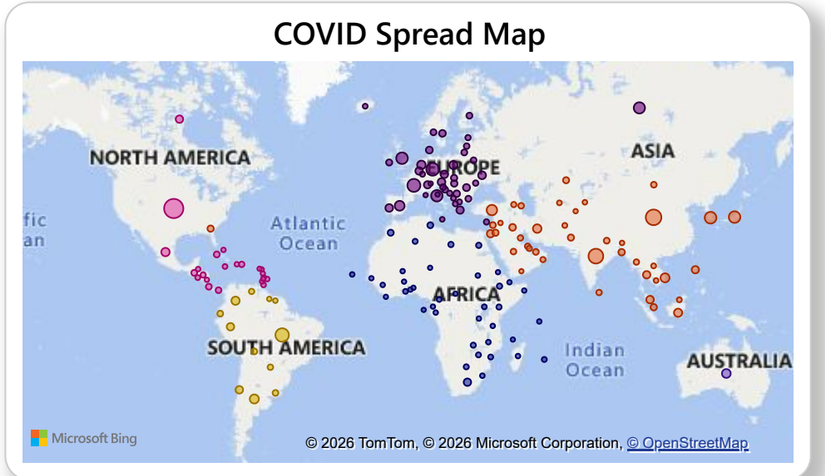
Suggests that fatality was relatively low compared to total infections.



Cases peaked around 2021 and declined in later years.



Vaccinations increased rapidly during early rollout and later stabilized.



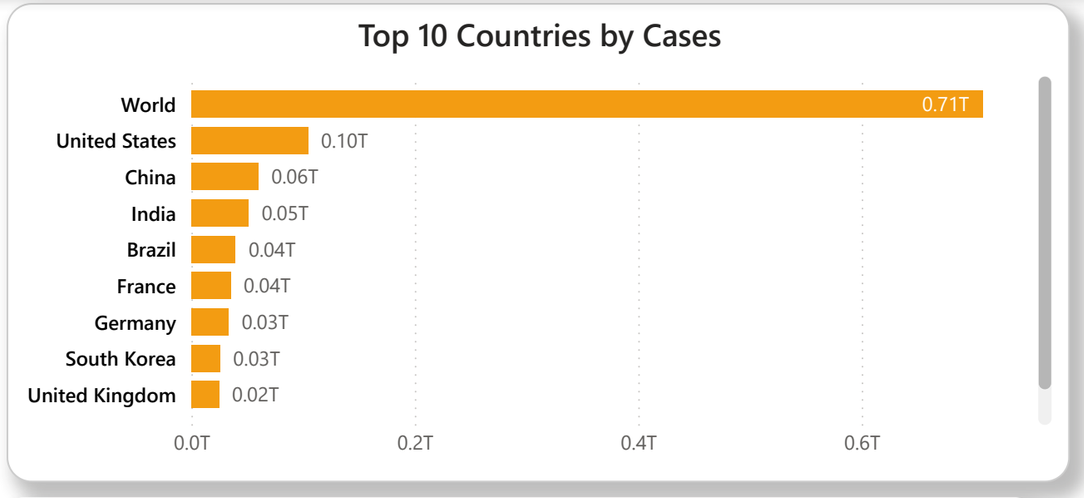
Cases are distributed globally across multiple continents.

Country Impact & Risk Analysis

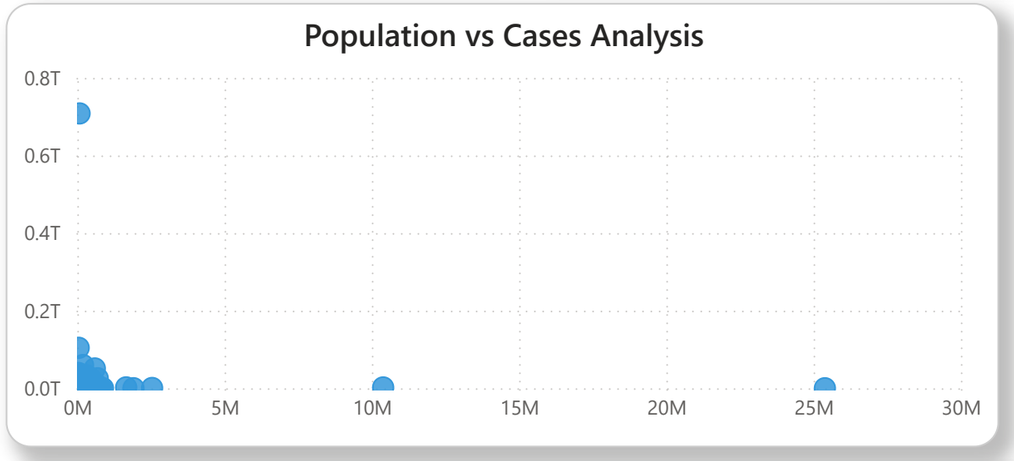
date
01-01-2021 14-08-2024

continent
All

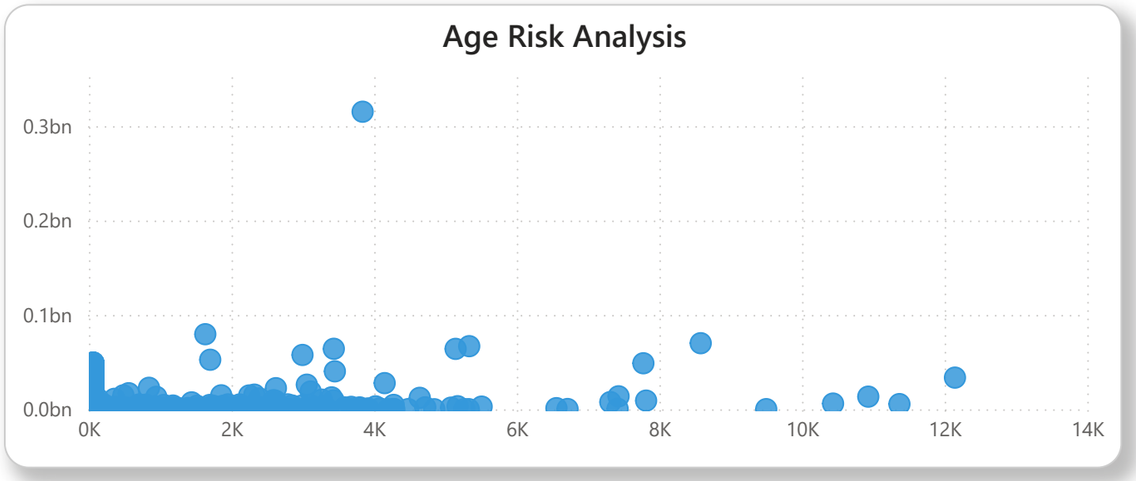
location
All



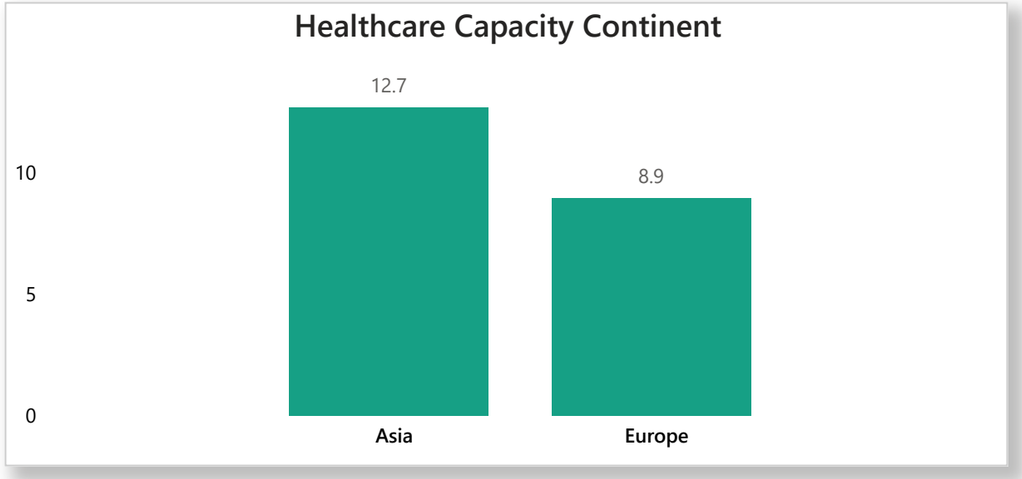
A small number of countries account for a large share of cases.



Countries with larger populations tend to report higher case counts.



Risk levels vary across different age groups.



Healthcare resources differ between continents.